Founded in 1990 by Ronald Lawrence, Community Counseling Center was formed to address the need for affordable mental health treatment. Since then, CCC has been providing quality substance abuse and mental health treatment to the southern Nevada population. CCC counselors help families stay together, prevent homelessness, and work with clients to help them lead sober lives. CCC counselors also work with HIV/AIDS and Hepatitis C infected and affected clients to improve their coping skills and well-being. We are dedicated to empowering our clients through education, prevention treatment, and advocacy. We promote the healthy functioning of individuals, families and society. Many of our clients are affected by life's challenges, including substance abuse, HIV/AIDS, Hepatitis C, addictions, criminality, dysfunction, and abuse in all its forms. We are committed to providing culturally competent, affordable, and linguistically appropriate mental health care in a manner that is both compassionate and professional. Community Counseling Center is a private/non-profit community based corporation, a United Way Agency, and was accredited by the Council on Accreditation. It also serves as the Las Vegas chapter of the Milton Erikson Institute
